“A Moment with the Minister”

I was standing in line at the grocery store a few days ago when I started hearing these electronic chirps. Ding... Ding... Ding... Ding... A few seconds between, then another and another. Finally, I realized the dings were coming from the rear end of the person ahead of me. He had his phone in his back pocket, and someone or something was flailing for his attention.

Maybe this guy in front of me at Fry’s was the president of some country or a really bad secret agent, but the truth is most of us aren’t important enough to receive that many notifications. Still, like trained seals clapping for fish, we usually grab our phones whenever they promise a reward.

Our smartphones aren’t the only things that have us in their service. The banners on TV News channels shout that there’s BREAKING NEWS, even if that same news has been breaking for three days now. Companies tell us we’ll never be good or thin or smart enough unless we consume their products. Everything seems so urgent. There’s constant chatter jangling our brains.

Now, I’m no Luddite. I love a good gadget. In fact, I think all this technology creates greater equality, including easier access to information. But our theme this month is Living in Beauty, and the constant electronic calls for our attention are a major contemporary obstacle to that goal. We will have to make room if we are going to experience the beauty around us.

There is a balance to be struck, of course. We can’t just unplug completely, shut off the news forever and pretend all is well. Unitarian Universalism calls us to be informed and working for justice. But if we choose to, in our relationship with media messages we can become the trainer instead of the seal.

The first step is awareness of the effects your electronic consumption is having on you. Are you being dinged and pinged too often? It might be worth changing the settings on your phone to ensure you are only notified when you want to be. Are you feeling frustrated when you scroll through Facebook or Twitter or Instagram? If so, is that frustration productive or destructive? If it is destructive, can you limit your social media time? The same questions might help with any media that has you feeling at loose ends. Stepping away for a while, shutting off all those little annoying notifications on our phones, will help us make space to experience beauty.

When we have room for it, we are sure to find the beauty we’re looking for. People are still mostly good, and it’s amazing how often folks can be observed helping one another. Some museum is always offering free admissions to see art. You don’t just deserve to experience all the beauty around you. You need it, and it will refuel you for the justice work ahead.

So don’t be a grocery store butt-dinger. Take charge of the media you’re using and create more space for renewal. Beauty awaits you!

With love,
Rev. Andy

BOARD HIGHLIGHTS

Dear friends of VUU,

Last week the board of trustees decided to move our monthly meeting to give members a chance to attend the protest rally during the president's visit. Although not all trustees were able to attend, it gave everyone space to observe in their own way.

At the event, it was very encouraging to see the large group of folks representing our VUU community. The bright yellow Standing on the Side of Love shirts made it easy to find folks and seeing everyone there gave me a sense of pride in being a part of VUU and what we stand for. It was also very powerful to be a part of thousands of people that were carrying signs with words like hope, love, acceptance, and equality. Almost every one of our UU principles were on display in those signs:

1. The inherent worth and dignity of every person;
2. Justice, equity and compassion in human relations;
3. Acceptance of one another and encouragement to spiritual growth in our congregations;
4. A free and responsible search for truth and meaning;
5. The right of conscience and the use of the democratic process within our congregations and in society at large;
6. The goal of world community with peace, liberty, and justice for all;
7. Respect for the interdependent web of all existence of which we are a part.

The VUU board will resume its work next week during the rescheduled meeting.

Warm regards,
Paul Schneider
President
VUU Board of Trustees

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED IN OUR SUNDAY MORNING RELIGIOUS EDUCATION CLASSROOMS

Meet Fionna. Fionna is one of the imaginary friends representing more than 20 world religions who are scheduled to visit the 2nd and 3rd grade RE class this year. The friends will share about their belief systems, rituals, games, and crafts.

Unfortunately, we are short on volunteers to run our programs:

-  Preschool – Need 4 teachers, 12 Sundays.
-  2nd/3rd grade – Need 3 assistants to lead teacher Teri
-  4th/5th grade – Need 4 assistants to lead teacher Sharon
-  HS – Need 4 assistants to lead teacher Rebecca

WHAT IS THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN A “TEACHER” AND AN “ASSISTANT”?

Valley UU is fortunate enough to have 4 paid, and one volunteer, lead teacher. These teachers are in the classroom every Sunday. They are prepared to lead the lesson and get to know our children/youth very well. 1 assistant per Sunday joins the lead teacher to help with the class activities.

The preschool class is led by 6 volunteer teachers who share in the responsibility of reviewing and leading the lesson and helping the children become comfortable in the class. In order to staff the room with 2 volunteers, each teacher needs to sign up for 12 Sundays during our program year.

Volunteer requirements: attend Valley UU for 6 months and complete an application which includes permission to run a criminal background check. [Note: being a parent of a child in the class is NOT a requirement!]

Please email me at re@vuu.org if you are willing to help, classes begin September 10th.

RE-STARTING ADULT RELIGIOUS EDUCATION OFFERINGS

Spirit of Life Reading Circle

Spirit of Life Reading Circle meets once a month to discuss theological issues of interest to Unitarian Universalists. We send out links to the articles for the month, which everyone reads before the meeting and they form the basis for our discussion, after we have a short check-in to see how everyone is doing. Despite the old saw that you should never publicly discuss religion or politics, this is a place that exists for us to discuss religious issues that illuminate our principles and our lives.

Our schedule for this year is: September 21; October 26; November 30: No December meeting; January 25; February 22; March 22; April 26 and May 24.

MUSIC & MORE

Lingering thoughts from General Assembly: I am still mulling over the excellent sermon given by the Rev. Cheryl Walker at the Service of Living Tradition at the annual continental gathering of Unitarian Universalists (GA) in New Orleans this past June. Sometimes the best way to evaluate whether a program or event did the job it set out to do is to see what one remembers some months later, and if one is incorporating new learnings. The main thing I'm still thinking about from GA is the part of her sermon where she said change just to make a change doesn't mean much. But change that makes a positive impact is important. And a good thing to ask oneself when contemplating something new is to ask, "Am I doing this for my own ego or to try to have a positive impact? Impact is what is important and I am trying to remember that as I plan programs and music for this new church year.

Another thing Rev. Walker said was that human beings haven't evolved emotionally, spiritually, or mentally to be able to handle social media very well. Wow, has that become obvious recently in our world! In my work at VUU over the years I have learned that the best way to deal with conflict is to try to talk directly to the person involved, rather than go to others, and to always assume best intentions. I am grateful to VUU leaders and congregants who have been reminding us of a better way through the "Difficult Conversation" meetings. And to those of you who have been showing up publicly at rallies and prayer vigils, and to those of you who have supported in other ways by making signs, providing water, or staying home and taking care of children and the activities of daily life that need attending to. There are many ways to be a blessing to this world and in this particular time, and often these ways are behind-the-scenes. I am grateful to so many of you, and to Cheryl Walker and her healing and wise words at GA. If you are interested in hearing more, go to the link to the service where she spoke:

ANNUAL FALL CABARET

October 14th, 7PM in the VUU Sanctuary. This fun evening of music, laughter, dance, and humor has been happening for over 25 years now! The theme this year is Tributes: Wonderful songs from wonderful musicians, gone before their time. For more information or to help, contact producer Ken St. John.

CHOIRS-Newcomers especially welcome now!

Adult Choir rehearsals are Wednesday evenings from 7:30 to 9:00 PM in the VUU Sanctuary. No auditions necessary, just a love of singing a variety of styles of mostly 4-part music with others. The choir sings about twice a month for Sunday morning worship services, and for a few special events, including our annual Cabaret on October 14th.

The Chalice Ringers, VUU's Bell Choir, rehearses on Wednesdays from 6 to 7:30 PM, also in the VUU Sanctuary. No prior experience necessary, but reading music rhythms is a big plus. Directed by Joan Buddy.

The Chalice Singers, VUU's Children's Choir, waits until Wednesday, September 20th to start rehearsals, and they will meet then from 6:15 to 7 PM in the sanctuary kitchen.

VUU COMMUNITY

2017 – 2018 Chalice Circles

VUU's small group ministry program, Chalice Circles, will begin in October of 2017 and will run until May 2018. These twice monthly gatherings of no more than 10 people feature deep listening and allow for quiet reflection on vital issues of faith and life. Sessions are guided by trained facilitators, last 90 minutes, and are most often held in members' homes. Meaningful connection with others and grounding in our shared values result from the deep listening and thoughtful sharing.

Each group will decide its own meeting spot. For 2017-2018, meetings will be held on Tuesday evenings at VUU, Wednesday evenings in/near Tempe, and Thursday evenings in/near Mesa. Circles will meet from 7 – 8:30pm.

A "kick-off" event will be held on October 1st from 1-1:30pm. Your facilitator will let you know when the first evening meeting will be on October 1st.

Additionally, each group is asked to put together two service projects, one to benefit the congregation and one to benefit the wider community.

Chalice Circles are facilitated by people involved with VUU. All facilitators receive training on guiding the deep listening circles and their role with small group ministry within VUU. Facilitators also participate in a monthly Facilitator Circle. If you are interested in becoming a facilitator, please email chalicecircles@vuu.org to request an application.

VUU SOCIAL ACTION MINISTRY

Promoting Social, Economic and Environmental Justice

National Voter Registration Day

In advance of National Voter Registration Day on September 26th, we at Valley Unitarian Universalist Congregation will be preparing ourselves to build participation in American democracy.

At 7 p.m. September 12th, officials from the Maricopa County Recorder's Office will be at VUU to conduct voter registration training. This training, which is open to the public, will prepare those in attendance to register others to vote.

After our worship service on Sunday, September 24th, those who have been trained will spend about an hour knocking on doors in the neighborhood surrounding VUU registering our neighbors to vote. Lunch will be provided.

If you are interested in attending the training, please RSVP to office@vuu.org.

Paz de Cristo Needs YOU!

Are you a UU looking for another way to help others who are less fortunate? Are your students in need of community service volunteer hours? Make a commitment to help feed the hungry at Paz de Cristo on a second Friday in September, October and/or November. Each month, VUU needs 20 volunteers to satisfy our long running commitment to this wonderful charity. Many of our regular volunteers are away during summer and early fall months so this is the perfect time to bring the family (age 12 and over) and make a difference in the lives of others. Please check here for availability and sign up – we'd love to serve with you! Send questions to pazdecristo@vuu.org

I-HELP (Interfaith Homeless Emergency Lodging Program) needs your HELP!

We need some friendly people willing to spend the evening eating food and getting to know our homeless and interfaith neighbors. VUU I-HELP program houses up to 25 of our homeless Chandler neighbors most Monday evenings and we are looking for anyone willing to help coordinate serving our evening meal.

The role is simple. Help volunteers find any items they may need to serve the evening meal, enjoy an evening meal with our guests, and assist volunteers in clean up. Coordinators generally arrive about 5:30 and are done by eight (unless a particularly interesting conversation with our guests keeps you there later). Volunteer once a month, once every month or when you can.

Please contact vuuihelp@vuu.org for more information.

Paz de Cristo

Drop your donation in the designated boxes in the foyer of the sanctuary. Needed items include:

- Canned Tuna and Canned Chicken

Register to Vote:

Most of us are registered to vote. But what happens when you run into someone who isn't? Did you know that you can register to vote online? If you find someone that is not registered send them to <https://vote.gov/register/az/>

Upcoming Events :

October 29: The next session of "Difficult Conversations and How to Have Them" For a revised version of the Ladder of Inference, contact Beverly McCormick, tempebev1@gmail.com.

TRULY LIVING AND WALKING IN BEAUTY

VUU Library:

The sale of Anne Schneider’s books of poetry and nature photography was very successful; we made $140 in two weeks. There are still books for sale in the library. The proceeds will go toward the purchase of new books for VUU’s library.

We need recommendations for books that the congregation would like to see in the library. Please send your suggestions to Johnnie Godfrey at johnniegirl85218 @gmail.com.

A Note from Sue

We are updating the VUU Directory! If you have any updates to your contact info (new email address; you disconnected your home phone; new cell phone #, etc.) please send this info to the office - office@vuu.org. Also, if you don't have a picture in last year's directory - WE WANT YOUR ADORABLE (OR NOT) FACE IN THE NEXT DIRECTORY. So, send a picture also or watch out, we may send our favorite photographer after you to get your picture :-). Questions? contact Sue at office@vuu.org. Thank you.

Philip Gulley will *BE HERE!

Valley Unitarian Universalist Congregation on Saturday, October 21, 10AM – 11:30AM. $5 at the door.

The workshop he will be offering is “The Awakened Soul”

“Phil Gulley is a delightful combination of Garrison Keillor, Will Rogers and your local minister. While his message is about the radical and inclusive love of God, his style is so warm and witty you find yourself simply charmed into new insights about faith. As a pastor of a church who brings in many nationally-known speakers and teachers, I am sometimes impressed with their acumen but disappointed with their effect upon our spiritual community. Phil has an uncanny ability to both challenge and upbuild the church at the same time. He will warm your heart, open your mind and animate your congregation’s spirit.” --Dr. James Keck, Sr. Minister First Plymouth Congregational Church, Lincoln NE

“Philip Gulley had hardly left our church before people were asking about when we could have him back. I wholeheartedly echo the sentiments of the congregation, who found Philip to be humorous and humble and refreshingly authentic. I find that his wisdom about the challenging nature of church and faith has struck a chord with our community and has called us to look carefully at who we are and how we are living out the Gospel in our place and time. Philip was a prophetic presence in our services and I will welcome the opportunity to have him teach and preach at Cathedral of Hope again.” -- Rev. Dr. Jo Hudson, Cathedral of Hope, Dallas TX

“Gulley tells his stories with a bright intelligence, a wry wink and warm-hearted good humor, which are at the same time tender, thought provoking and downright hilarious.”

– CARRIE NEWCOMER, singer and songwriter

PHILIP GULLEY BIO

Philip Gulley is a Quaker pastor and writer and speaker from Danville, Indiana where he lives today with his wife, Joan, and two dogs, Ruby and Jack. Many of his characters and recollections are taken from his boyhood in this small Midwestern town.

Gulley attended Marian University in Indianapolis where he studied theology and sociology. He then enrolled at Christian Theological Seminary where he received his Master of Divinity in 1992. While in seminary, he became the pastor of Irvington Friends Meeting in Indianapolis and began writing essays for the church's newsletter. Paul Harvey, Jr. received those newsletters and shared them with a publisher. A few months later, the publisher invited Gulley to publish his essays, which resulted in Front Porch Tales, his first book in the best-selling Porch Talk series of inspirational and humorous essays. He has been writing ever since.

An eclectic writer, Gulley has now published 20 books, including the acclaimed Harmony series chronicling life in the eccentric Quaker community of Harmony, Indiana. Gulley's latest fictional series continues the exploits of Sam Gardner, first introduced in the Harmony series. The new Hope series includes A Place Called Hope, and A Lesson in Hope, his most recent fictional release.

Gulley's memoir, I Love You, Miss Huddleston: And Other Inappropriate Longings of My Indiana Childhood, recounts his coming-of-age years in Danville, Indiana. It was recognized as an Indiana Book of the Year, and was a semi-finalist for the James Thurber Prize for American Humor.

Gulley has also written several books of theology. He and co-author James Mulholland describe their progressive worldview in their books If Grace Is True and If God Is Love. Gulley then went on to write If the Church Were Christian in which he presents a profound picture of what the church could look like if it refocused on the priorities of Jesus. In his book The Evolution of Faith he proposes a fresh direction for Christianity and articulates a Christianity that, while faithful to the priorities of Jesus, can help its adherents live happily, peacefully, and productively in our complex world. The Nobel laureate Desmond Tutu said of that book, "In our ever-changing world, Gulley's book is much needed. An important book for any person of faith."

In his most recently published theological work, Living the Quaker Way: Timeless Wisdom for a Better Life Today, Gulley offers the opportunity to participate in a world where the values of the Quaker way bring equity, peace, healing, and hope. He invites his readers to encounter the defining commitments of the Religious Society of Friends—simplicity, peace, integrity, community and equality, and shows how those ideals can be incorporated in personal and public life to bring renewal and eliminate the clutter that is keeping us from deeper spirituality.

Gulley is currently working on what will be his 21st book entitled The Awakened Soul. Many years ago, the great psychologist Abraham Maslow described the traits of happy, healthy people. Maslow recognized the importance of spirituality in helping people become "self-actualized." In this upcoming book, Gulley will reflect upon those characteristics and their contribution to our well-being. Healthy churches commit themselves to spiritual well-being. Maslow's observations, properly interpreted and updated, offer a positive way forward for thoughtful seekers across the theological spectrum.

Gulley has served as a Quaker pastor for 30 years, currently pastoring Fairfield Friends Meeting in Camby, Indiana. Additionally, he hosted the television program Porch Talk with Phil Gulley on the Indiana PBS affiliate WFYI and their flagship show Across Indiana, for which he received two Emmy® Awards. He also writes the popular monthly Home Again column for Indianapolis Monthly and is a regular contributor to The Saturday Evening Post. In 2010, Christian Theological Seminary awarded Gulley an honorary Doctor of Humane Letters degree. In 2014, Gulley was presented with an honorary Doctor of Divinity degree from Franklin College, in recognition of his body of work.
