“A Moment with the Minister”

As the old trope goes, before they merged in 1961 the Unitarians and Universalists had similar yet different theological emphases. Universalists believed God was too good to damn us, and Unitarians believed we are too good to be damned. The truth is, no matter which direction you approach it from, we Unitarian Universalists have long taught that people are born basically good, full of potential for love and good work.

And yet, in our seven principles, a tension emerges. “We covenant to affirm and promote,” the fourth principle reads, “a free and responsible search for truth and meaning.” Set that against the first principle, our belief in the inherent worth and dignity of every person, and you get the most important dual message of Unitarian Universalism: You are wonderful just the way you are, and you have some growing to do.

This is true of people, and it is true of institutions. Valley Unitarian Universalist Congregation was perfect just as it was when it was founded more than 50 years ago. But wouldn’t it be odd if today VUU was still a handful of people meeting in a pizza parlor? The congregation had some growing to do, and grow it has!

Each of us comes into the life of this institution at different points, and each of us joins because we love the congregation as we found it. But still, the congregation we love has some growing to do. A congregation is always in formation, always growing in number and in impact, always being prepared for handing off to the next generation of members.

This Fall, we are going to experience some of the changes that growth can bring. To make room for new members, we will be hosting two worship services for the first time in about 15 years. To create opportunities for adult spiritual growth, we will be conducting a faith formation hour between those two services. Growth is calling us to change the way we do things.

Times of change like this one tend to ratchet up the anxiety. Few of us adore change. My encouragement, as we move into this next season of the congregation’s formation, is to be gentle with one another. If you experience something that you believe needs fixing, let us know in the office. We value your feedback. Be aware of your own level of anxiety as the times and locations of things change. It’s OK to be a little grumpy about things, and it’s OK to be really excited too. Your minister and staff are happy to hear about either or both.

Most of all, my hope for myself and for all of us is that we will keep in the front of our minds that our congregation is in perpetual formation. The pioneering spirit of our founders remains with us. Just as they could never have imagined a thriving social action-oriented congregation of 350 members, we likely can’t imagine what VUU will look like 50 years from now. But we are on the path of formation together, and that’s pretty exciting.

With love,
Rev. Andy

BOARD HIGHLIGHTS

Friends,

I hope you are all looking forward to the new and exciting things at VUU this fall. We are such a vital congregation; I continue to hear that there is something here for everyone. For many of us, there is enough to keep us busy all week, and still miss activities of which we want to be a part!

In September, the Board was busy kicking off a new year that will help us get to the next phase of VUU, the phase that catapults us towards our vision of what we want to become. We are well on our way. We convened two committees of the board, each with members that bring special and relevant experience to the task. We hope you'll engage these committees, as they will engage you, as they begin their work.

Capital Campaign Committee (CCC): Hiring campaign consultant(s), planning a financial campaign, two-way communication with the congregation relative to campaign goals and requests, communication with lender(s) regarding the borrowing of construction and/or permanent loan funds, communication with the Board and the CPC regarding project planning timeline. Members are Barbara Metz, David Sheh, Carl Anderson, Mary Wolf-Francis, Linda Horton (liaison to the Stewardship Team/annual operating pledge), and Musette Steger (Board of Trustee Rep/liaison to the Board).

Capital Planning Committee (CPC): Hiring the architect and construction company(ies), working with the City of Chandler, two-way communication with the congregation relative to construction design and timeline, making construction/finish decisions, communication with the Board and the CCC regarding project financing/timeline. Members are Beverly McCormick, Nancy Egly, Willa Cree, Mark Beehler, Barb Quijada, Debra Grande, Jeff Grout, Rick Hinrichs, Anne Schneider, Jim Horton, and Maria Dixon (Board of Trustees Rep/liaison to the Board).

We cannot thank these members enough for volunteering for this multi-year commitment to this high service.

The Board met for a goal-setting retreat in September, which we approved as our plan of action for 2018-19. That day, we contacted by phone (some conversations, some voice mail) 106 households, and let those members know what our goals are. We are proud of them; we look forward to a great year. If we didn't contact you, and/or you want to share anything, at any time, with the board, please feel free to contact us at bod@vuu.org. Read our goals, shared with you on another page in this newsletter.

The Stewardship Team is planning an exciting event, "CommUUnity Sunday" on November 4. We will have a dynamic guest speaker, and a catered lunch after the second service. MARK YOUR CALENDARS and plan to be there as we celebrate our congregation's planning and individual commitment for 2019.

In service,

DeeAnne McClenahan, President

The course is about how women experience the sacred and is presented in a uniquely interactive format.

We will meet on the 2nd & 3rd Sunday of each month in the Sanctuary library.

The group will include facilitation by Sandi Olivas Corn, from her viewpoint as part of a multigenerational Latinx family, and Beverly Workmon, using concepts from her work as a storytelling leader using the James Birren Guided Autobiography approach.

The October 18 meeting book is The Water is Wide by Pat Conroy. This memoir is the story of a man who gave a year of his life to an island and the new life its people gave him. The island is nearly deserted, haunting, beautiful. Across a slip of ocean lies South Carolina. But for the handful of families on Yamacraw Island, America is a world away.

Meeting time is 7:15 p.m. All are welcome. For the meeting address or questions, please contact Johnnie at 480-839-0544, or Amy at 480-917-1922, or email: agmonahan@gmail.com.

Eratosthenes curvature of the earth experiment

You'll be happy to hear our experiment confirmed the earth is round. We computed an angle difference of just over 20 degrees. Given 2,172km between us this gave us a circumference of just over 39,000km. Our calculations fell short of the actual distance which is just over 40,000km. Given how small our shadows were and there may have been some distance errors it isn't surprising to be off by about 2%. It was nonetheless very cool to confirm what Eratosthenes calculated so long ago!

Here are the two pictures. One taken in the north and one in the south at noon September 23.

Kind regards,
-Randy Galbraith

MUSIC & MORE

CHOIRS

Chalice Singers (VUU's Children's Choir) are changing to TUESDAY rehearsals. They start up again on Tuesday, October 2, from 6:15 to 7 p.m. in the sanctuary kitchen. This fun group is for children mostly Kindergarten through grade 6, and they perform for Sunday services about once a month.

Voices Lifted Singers rehearse about twice a month on Sundays from 1:30-3:00 p.m. in Room 1 of the Faith Formation area (WEST side of parking lot). This ensemble of female voices sings in community settings such as assisted living homes, senior centers, and at bedside for those recovering from surgery or illness or in hospice care. Newcomers always welcome! Upcoming rehearsals are Oct. 28, November 18, Dec. 2 & 16, and a day retreat on Saturday Oct. 13th in Prescott -see Kellie for more details.

Chalice Ringers (VUU's Handbell Choir) also rehearses TUESDAYS, 6 to 7:30 p.m. in the VUU sanctuary.

The Adult Choir rehearses TUESDAY evenings 7:30-9:00 p.m. in the VUU Sanctuary. Open to all who like to sing, from high school age on up. This group sings a variety of mostly 4-part choral music and performs every 2-3 weeks for Sunday services.

MORE: The music of Melanie Demore was featured at the annual UU Musician's Network Conference I attended in Portland, Oregon this past August. She was a fabulous song-leader- check her website at: <http://www.melaniedemore.com/> or view this video: www.youtube.com/watch?v=wpMW8-Nx4T0, where she teaches her song "I Will Be Your Standing Stone." One of our favorite songs in Voices Lifted Singers, "I Am Sending You Light," was written by her, and she has long been associated with the Threshold Choir movement -singers who sing at bedside for people at the end of life.

The annual Tempe Interfaith Fellowship's THANKSGIVING SERVICE will be held on Tuesday evening, November 20 at 7 p.m. This year it will be held at Temple Emanuel, located at 5801 S. Rural Road, Tempe. We do not know yet what the music will be and if VUU singers or bell ringers will be involved but stay posted!

JOURNEY TO MEMBERSHIP SESSIONS for the '18 – '19 church year:
Sundays from 1 until 4:30 p.m. on November 11 and February 3, and Sundays from 12 until 3:30 p.m. on May 5 and August 18

VUU COMMUNITY

Our Final Sunday with just one Service !!!

Sunday, October 7 after our Service

Bring a dish to share.

Join the fun! Build community!

VUU has a Hospitality Team: a cadre of people who are willing to be contacted to help for an upcoming event. The idea is that if you are planning on attending an event, you might be willing to come early to help set-up or stay late to help clean-up. Sometimes we also need folks to bring food or arrange the serving of food that is brought by others. If we have this kind of support, we can have more social events at VUU.

We have urgent needs for people to help with the Homecoming potluck on October 7, and a crew to set up and take down tables and chairs for Sunday Service Coffee Hour.

Please send an email to JoAnne Smith, team coordinator at uujsmith@aol.com if you would be willing to be on the Hospitality Team list. That doesn't mean that you must volunteer for every event, only the ones that fit your schedule.

Opportunity to help Women4Women Tempe

We've partnered with Women4Women Tempe's to help provide bags containing feminine hygiene products to homeless and low-income women. They believe these items should be available to those who need them, regardless of their economic situation.

We'll gather together (women and men are both welcome) to assemble bags from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m. on Saturday November 3rd in the Board and Conference rooms in the office building. There are several ways to help:

1. Come and help make the bags on November 3rd
2. Donate items to fill the bags – feminine pads and tampons are especially needed
3. Donate money to purchase the above items.

Willa Cree or Lauree Perry will cheerfully accept your donations; either monies or products.

More information will be available at tables in October.

Beverages and light snacks will be provided. This is a fun, low-key way to get to know each other, and do something helpful for our larger community.

For more info contact Lauree (lperry98@earthlink.net)

We invite YOU to become a part of VUU’s Highlight Hospitality Team.

Johnnie Godfrey and her team have taken our Coffee Hour to new heights.

Now our Coffee Hour will grow to even more importance as we move to two Sunday morning services: It will be a focal point as we attend workshops and classes.

... and guess what: We need a bigger team!

Our teams of volunteers will prepare drinks and snacks during the Early Service, serve during the Faith Formation Hour, and clean up during the Late Service.

To volunteer for set-up, serving, and clean-up, please contact:

Sue at Office@vuu.org or Linda at LindaHorto@cs.com

2019 PSW District Assembly: Save the Date and Call for Workshops

Save the weekend of April 26-28, 2019, for the next Pacific Southwest District Assembly at the UU Church of Long Beach (Calif.)! Next year's DA Theme will be "From the Ground Up: The Power of Our PSWD Communities."

The congregation is the foundation of our Unitarian Universalist faith. Everything we do as an expression of our faith is grounded in the local communities from which we all take comfort and strength. Some of our greatest joys sprout from the spiritual communities and the congregations of the Pacific Southwest District - both big and small. How does this theme apply to your congregation or your life?

If you have an idea for a workshop, conference session or other activity that would fit well with this theme, please contact DA planning committee co-chair Michael Hart at michaelhrt3@gmail.com. Workshop submissions are due by Oct. 20, 2018. For more information, contact Michael Hart at michaelhrt3@gmail.com.

Valley UU Congregation Board of Trustees
Board Goals 2018-19

- The VUU Board will support the capital planning and fundraising for campus improvements, provide charters to the Capital Planning and Capital Campaign Committees, and ensure that a feasibility study is completed by end of 2018. Each trustee commits to make personal financial commitments to the Annual Operating Campaign and to the Capital Campaign on or before November 1, 2018.
- The VUU Board will work to transition board meetings from primarily business focused to primarily learning, skills training, mission stories, and generative discussion, focused on the mission of the congregation. Each trustee commits to spending more time offline and in advance of board meetings to read, study, generate and ask questions, and obtain answers, so that business proposals and reports may be voted on during meetings, but without taking up meeting time for related discussion.
- The VUU Board will work towards a revision to Board By-Laws and Policies, with a focus on simplification, the elimination of redundancy, and improved usability. We will commit resources to this project, including using third-party consultants to review, make and present recommendations for change.
- The VUU Board will finalize ends statements measurements. A continuation of last year’s goal, the board will study “The Math of Mission,” and work to create both qualitative and quantitative measurements that help to define the progress VUU is making toward fulfilling the mission and vision set forth in 2016.

EVENTS

Follow the "Welcome UU" signs to the Community Building.

SPECTRUM VUU LGBTQ+ is hosting an educational event on the subject of transgender in December. Join us to help organize our first event and contribute to a welcoming community of allies at VUU. With the introduction of 2 Services this month, we are meeting on Oct. 7, 11:45 a.m. – 1 p.m. and on Oct. 21, 12:30 p.m. – 1:45 p.m.

SPECTRUM facilitated a discussion on ‘How to be Ally’ with 12 middle and high school students in the ‘Global Citizen’ summer program. Students had an opportunity to share their experiences related to bullying especially regarding LGBTQ+ identified. After reflecting on what they would say when they witness bullying or a ‘put down,’ students wrote their responses on a 3X5 card and shared with the group, so everyone came away with great ideas. What a compassionate, caring, supportive, and creative group!

EastVUUs
OCTOBER 11 - 6PM

The EastVUU group includes Unitarian Universalists and friends who gather monthly for fellowship, spiritual conversations and social justice work.

Our meeting discussion will be "Vocation"

"Vocation does not come from a voice 'out there' calling me to become something I am not. It comes from a voice 'in here' calling me to be the person I was born to be, to fulfill the original selfhood given me at birth."

Somos America, a 501c3 Phoenix activist group is collecting supplies or financial donation for UUJAZ sponsored October statewide UU semi-annual drive. Somos collects for two different AZ volunteer groups who work 1:1 with asylum-seeker families of either mother/child or father/child who have entered USA at a port of entry and requested asylum. Travel size nonperishable foods needed for their 1-4 days trips to sponsored family. Currently anywhere from 20-40 family units needing assistance every day of the week. These volunteers are in desperate need of these supplies to pass on.

ALL SUPPLIES CAN BE FOUND AT ANY 99cent store:

A MINDFUL JOURNEY TO

Northern Vietnam & Angkor Wat

With Rev. Wayne Walder and Joan Walder | March 15 – 27, 2019

On this trip we immerse ourselves in the scenery, history, and traditions of northern Vietnam and Cambodia. We visit monasteries to meditate at an eclectic collection of temples, learn about Zen and Theravada practices from monks and novices, hike in the outstanding natural environment of the Sapa highlands, and marvel at the ethereal beauty of Halong Bay. And at Angkor Wat, we spend time at the abode of ancient gods. If you have a little more time available, consider extending your stay in Luang Prabang replete with timeless architecture, gilded temples, and saffron-clad monks.

A mindful journey is different from a vacation even though it looks like one. On a mindful journey, instead of looking outside, we are also noticing what is happening inside ourselves. How does the beauty we see affect us? How do different customs and morals make us question our values? How can we allow the difference in human culture to teach us? Even history can remind us life is precious and temporary, no matter how grand or beautiful it may appear. A Pilgrimage includes two journeys, the one we visit and the one inside our hearts and minds.
