“A Moment with the Minister”

October 2017 marks 500 years since Martin Luther nailed 95 complaints about the Catholic church to the door of All Souls Church in Wittenberg, Germany, touching off the religious revolution folks came to call the Protestant Reformation. He challenged the authority of the church and its leaders. Specifically, Luther questioned the practice of selling indulgences, something like get-out-of-hell-free cards. “As soon as the coin in the coffer rings, the soul from purgatory springs,” went the church’s indulgence jingle. Luther called out such teaching as an abuse of the poor.

Today, there are 560 million Protestants around the world. To most of them, the specifics of Luther’s differences with the Roman Catholic church hardly matter anymore. People tend to choose their faith homes based more on style and services offered than on theology. In fact, many modern-day Protestants are much closer to the Roman Catholic church in their theology than they are to Luther. The Pew Research Center reported recently that “theological differences that split western Christianity in the 1500s have diminished to a degree that might have shocked Christians in past centuries.”

The enduring legacy of the Protestant Reformation, the part that in some ways continues to unfold, is personal freedom. Luther insisted that people have direct access to God, with no need for a priest-intermediary. The principles of the Reformation sparked challenges to authority that eventually led to democracy. The power of people to decide their own fates is a Reformation inheritance. Reformation principles are the beating heart of movements for justice including the suffrage and abolition movements.

In 2017, we have free access to libraries full of information, as close as the phones in our pockets. Such widespread knowledge gives people power and helps us hold leaders accountable in ways Luther could never have dreamed of. Still, the powerful do find ways to hold onto power. Even as information is more accessible than ever, the threats to democracy in our country have seldom been more tangible. Fake news stories and voter suppression are cynical attempts at squashing the democratic spirit.

So, may we remember, as we march and write letters and vote and hold our leaders accountable, that we are part of a long legacy of self-determination. May that legacy fuel our efforts at making sure every person has a voice. Five-hundred years later, the Protestant Reformation’s influence remains.

With love,
Rev. Andy

Faith Formation Ministry

Religious Education October 2017

Extra Extra: Valley UU Religious Education Ministry gets a new name to better represent what we do:

FAITH FORMATION MINISTRY

Faith development theorist James Fowler spoke of “Faith” as dynamic – something we do. Faith is a process of wrestling meaning from life, testing it through action, and subjecting it again and again to the scrutiny of our minds, to the leap of our hearts, to the reality of action. The term (and the title) Religious Education insinuates that “all we do” is teach religion, but our ministry at Valley UU has a larger, more encompassing mission. We strive to help our members and friends to question, search, and investigate their faith in a community of support while providing opportunities to live that faith. That is why my title is changing from “Director of Lifespan Religious Education” to “Director of Faith Formation.”

Faith can be defined in a 3-fold way:

1. Belief – searching, learning, coming to conclusions in our minds.

Education is a big part of what we do on Sunday mornings. Each of our Sunday morning classes uses a curriculum with the goal of enabling learning about Unitarian Universalism, World Religions, and/or Our Judeo/Christian Heritage. Our adult programs provide informative, insightful avenues to allow each of us to stretch our thoughts and beliefs – to more fully form our faith.

2. Feel – allegiances of our hearts.

Look more closely at any of our “RE” programs, for adults, children or youth, and you will find interactions that encourage bonding. We offer social groups for toddlers through adults with the sole purpose of providing our members and friends with an avenue to find connections.

3. Act – behavioral - things we are willing to put our lives on the line for.

Facilitating multi-age opportunities to live out our values; serving meals at I-HELP, cooking at Paz de Cristo, making blankets for the homeless, and building homes in Agua Prieta, Mexico.

Marci Beaudoin, Director of Faith Formation ministry

What is the best diet for me?

A research and discussion group facilitated by Jerry Waters, will meet on the first Monday each month in Room 5, 7 p.m. – 9 p.m. beginning October 2.

I know what my answer is, and this personal decision must be made by all of us. Eating is a very individual and enjoyable activity. You may have a particular health condition that you want to help with your diet. We can explore what various experts recommend and look at promised improvements. The seventh UU principle calls for respect for the interdependent web of existence. Is our diet one way to show our regard for this principle?

The group will decide what topics to explore over the next several months. The Paleo diet, the Pritiken diet, the Mediterranean diet are all be possible topics. A list of references such as those championed by Drs. Dean Ornish, T. Colin Campbell, McDougall, Esselstyn and others will be provided.

ONGOING ADULT FAITH FORMATION OFFERINGS

The Dalai Lama and Friends Workshop

An opportunity to learn from the Dalai Lama and other Tibetan and modern Buddhist teachers is offered each Sunday from 9-10 a.m. in the RE complex, room 5. There is a reading or recorded audio or video teaching, then group discussion. Everyone is welcome! Various topics are discussed, such as 'how to be more compassionate' or 'dealing with anger' or 'how to meditate'.

If you come early there is also meditation from 8:30-9. Done at 10 - plenty of time to get to the VUU service! ...questions? Just email DavidBlackDLF@gmail.com

Child care is available at 8:30 am in the room next door, #6

Great Books Reading and Discussion Group

The VUU Great Books Reading and Discussion Group will continue our Politics, Leadership, and Justice series in October. We will discuss "Kongi's Harvest" by Wole Soyinka.

We will meet in Room 5, Sunday, October 22, from 7-9 p.m. All are welcome!

All are welcome. Please contact Kevin Erdmann at kebko@yahoo.com with any questions.

The N.S.G. (Not So Great) Book Club

The N.S.G. Book Club is open to all members, visitors, and friends of VUU who enjoy reading and discussing a variety of books. We meet once a month at the home of Johnnie Godfrey in Tempe (near Baseline Rd. and the 101).

The next meeting will be on October 19, at 7:15 p.m. The book is The Invention of Wings by Sue Monk Kidd. This is a novel set in motion on Sarah's eleventh birthday, when she is given ownership of ten-year-old Handful, who is to be her handmaid. We follow their remarkable journeys over the next 35 years.

For the meeting address or questions, please contact Johnnie at 480-839-0544, Amy at 480-917-1922, or email: agmonahan@gmail.com. All are welcome.

Spirit of Life Reading Circle

Spirit of Life Reading Circle meets once a month to discuss theological issues of interest to Unitarian Universalists. We send out links to the articles for the month, which everyone reads before the meeting and they form the basis for our discussion, after we have a short check-in to see how everyone is doing. Despite the old saw that you should never publicly discuss religion or politics, this is a place that exists for us to discuss religious issues that illuminate our principles and our lives.

Our schedule for this year is: October 26, November 30, No December meeting, January 25, February 22, March 22, April 26, and May 24.

Email maryloganrothschild@gmail.com to get on our mailing list. Our group is open and welcoming and we'd love to see you join us!

“Hospitality means primarily the creation of free space where the stranger can enter and become a friend instead of an enemy. Hospitality is not to change people, but to offer them space where change can take place. It is not to bring men and women over to our side, but to offer freedom not disturbed by dividing lines.”

Homecoming Potluck

INFO? CONTACT SUE AT OFFICE@VUU.ORG

Hospitality Ministry Established

Would you like to see more social events at VUU? I would, too and so I petitioned the staff to be appointed as “Party Planner.” After much discussion, it was decided that I should be the chairperson of the Hospitality Ministry with the mission to provide the structure that facilitates social events which will enrich the experience of those attending VUU and nurture a sense of community and belonging by fostering an opportunity for direct individual interaction.

The key word is structure. For social activities to happen someone must set up the physical space, i.e. tables, chairs and other furniture and to put it all away after the event is over. Often food is a key element in events and someone is needed to organize the solicitation of food, the arrangement and service of the food and the clean-up following the event.

I am encouraging everyone who wants to have more social events to think how they can help:

- Join the setup/clean up team assisting with the events that fit your schedule and interests.

- Join the food team and be willing to donate food for special events, memorial services, and other rites of passage at VUU at events that fit your schedule and interests.

- Join the recruitment team to contact the cadre of people who have signed up to work on the teams for specific events.

What can happen if we have the above teams? Think potlucks after services once a quarter, the Seder dinner that has been missing for two years, and other events suggested by members and approved by the staff. Remember, if you join one of the above teams, you do not have to be involved with every event, only the ones that appeal to you and fit your schedule.

Our first event is the Homecoming Sunday potluck after the service on October 22. (see the previous page for more info on this)

I-HELP \(Interfaith Homeless Emergency Lodging Program\) needs your HELP!

Did you know that we host a homeless shelter in our Sanctuary for 25 – 30 of our homeless neighbors on the 1st, 2nd, 3rd and 5th Mondays each month? Our guests arrive around 6 p.m. and volunteers from either VUU, the Local LDS Stake or the American Muslim Women's Association supply a delicious dinner. You can help in several ways: There is a set up team that puts up tables and chairs and lays out the sheets that will go on the sleeping mats that are delivered with our guests. There are volunteers who prepare &/or serve the meal. There is a need to purchase basic food supplies occasionally and you can pick up that container of lemonade or jelly, for example. When our guests wake up in the morning after a comfortable, safe night's sleep, they clean up after themselves and put the used sheets in the laundry bags on Tuesday morning. 1 or 2 volunteers make sure everything is put away early on Tuesday morning. The bags of sheets need to be washed every week and can be picked up Tues, Wed or Thurs and returned when you come to the VUU Service on Sunday morning, all clean and ready for use on Monday again. Would you like to know more about this important ministry? Do you want to get involved? Do you just love washing sheets!?! I'm sure we can find something for you to do so contact Sue at office@vuu.org.

Pacific South West District (PSWD) Happenings

The PSWD is the intermediate governance body between VUU and the denomination, the Unitarian Universalist Association (UUA). From time to time I have been reporting to the congregation on events as I see them.

The PSWD Board met over Labor Day weekend to plan for the upcoming year and to get to know each other. This is important because we only meet in person twice a year and 5 of the 8 Board members are newly elected. The highlights of this meeting are listed below:

1. We agreed to reach out all 50 congregations in the district; I have 8 congregations assigned to me including VUU. This will keep us busy and talking to folks for some time.
2. We discussed the progress of regionalization and how it will affect us going forward. Changes are coming to organizational structure and finances, and we need to re-negotiate our letter of agreement with the UUA.
3. Relations with Camp de Benneville Pines were discussed. Regionalization will affect them as well. We have a strong relationship with camp, including running 7 district sponsored camps a year. The PSWD's last remaining employee, the Camp Ministries Director (CMD) was transferred over to UUA payroll a few months ago. Our Board retained the right to direct his activities.
4. We reviewed the financials of the district; we still do not have good numbers from staff for the last fiscal year. Our treasurer took the task to run that down. Overall the numbers are promising; and the district has ample reserves on hand.
5. A sub committee was formed to create workable policies for the Board. Policies from 2009 were rescinded at our last meeting in 2016-7, as they so were completely outdated that they could not be followed now even if we wanted to use them.
6. Chalice Lighters: This program is up and running and does a lot of good work for our movement. Chalice Lighter programs are active in all 4 districts of the PWR; there are 12 regular calls (3 per district) per year. This is an excellent and easy way to strengthen our community ties. If you want to know more read up at chalice-lighters.

By the way, we are still looking for a Chalice Lighter coordinator for VUU. You do not ask for money and this is a good way to get your feet wet in the larger movement. If you are interested or just curious please look me up, David Sheh, sdavid471@cox.net.

THE AWAKENED SOUL - A WORKSHOP WITH PHILIP GULLEY

Philip Gulley is a Quaker pastor, writer, and speaker from Danville, Indiana. Gulley has written 21 books, including the Harmony series recounting life in the eccentric Quaker community of Harmony, Indiana and the best-selling Porch Talk essay series. Gulley's memoir, I Love You, Miss Huddleston: And Other Inappropriate Longings of My Indiana Childhood, was a finalist for the Thurber Prize for American Humor. In addition, Gulley, with co-author James Mulholland, shared their progressive spirituality in the books If Grace Is True and If God Is Love, followed by Gulley's books If the Church Were Christian and The Evolution of Faith - available at the workshop.

In his most recently published work of non-fiction, Living the Quaker Way: Timeless Wisdom For a Better Life Today, Gulley offers the opportunity to participate in a world where the values of the Quaker way bring equity, peace, healing, and hope. Living the Quaker Way invites readers to encounter the defining commitments of the Religious Society of Friends - simplicity, peace, integrity, community and equality, and shows how those ideals can be incorporated in personal and public life to bring renewal and eliminate the clutter that is keeping us from deeper spirituality.

Gulley is currently working on his 22nd book entitled Unlearning God, in which he describes the process of spiritual growth, especially the re-interpretation of the earliest principles we learned about God.

Find YOUR way to GRACE

"No one raises provocative questions about Christianity more kindly than Philip Gulley. In an age of shouting, Gulley gently points out the flaws in the church while opening ways to practice Christian spirituality with greater integrity. If the church were as Philip Gulley envisions here, people would be knocking down our doors to experience God's love." ~ Diana Butler Bass, author of Christianity for the Rest of Us

"In our ever-changing world, Gulley's book is much needed. An important book for any person of faith." ~ Archbishop Desmond Tutu, author of MADE FOR GOODNESS

Caring for a close friend or family member can be one of the most important roles we can play. It may start with driving to get groceries or to church and evolve from there. This program will offer practical tools and resources to help you feel you have the support you need.

This free event will be offered by Brenda Holt community outreach liaison from the Arizona chapter of AARP.

This event is sponsored by your Lay Pastoral Care Committee.

Mark your calendars!

Registration will be Sept. 17 - Oct. 15.

Many VUU members and friends have attended the VUU Prescott retreat over the years. The retreat is great for singles, couples, and families. Come join us once again this November, as we enjoy time in the woods at Pine Summit Camp, www.pinesummitcamp.com. Besides being in a beautiful forest, the camp has a mini-golf course, basketball and volleyball courts and an enclosed gym with a rock climbing wall, basketball courts and a low-tech game room. People are invited to bring books, board games, and attend various workshops that people host. For those interested, there is a Saturday night un-talent show, where singing, skits, and other "talent" are show cased.

Please add this retreat to your calendar and start saving now for this weekend. Cost will be about $100 per adult for the whole weekend. This includes lodging, Saturday meals, and Sunday breakfast & lunch. Contact: Karen Hindhede at kmhindhede@aol.com with further questions.

The Gilded Age Meets Downton Abbey. Cora, of Downton Abbey fame, is the inspiration for this journey. She was based on the American heiresses who arrived in England during the late 1800s and married for love or to rescue a great estate in distress. We will focus on some of these heiresses, while we explore their homes and visit Downton Abbey film sites. Highclere Castle was the home of heiress Lady Almina Carnarvon, and was also used as the fictional home of Cora. American Consuelo Vanderbilt married the 9th Duke of Marlborough and saved Blenheim Palace with her fortune. Another heiress, Jennie Jerome, married the 8th Duke of Marlborough's brother, and gave birth to Winston Churchill there. The great-grandmother of Diana the Princess of Wales, was an American Heiress and the future kings of England are her descendants.

We'll stay for 5 nights in my favourite English city, Oxford - the unique university town of amazing bookstores, unusual architecture, historic pubs, and eclectic free museums. We see where JRR Tolkien met with the Inklings, Lewis Carroll dreamed up Alice in Wonderland, CS Lewis had a magical wardrobe, Inspector Morse solved many crimes, and Bill Clinton didn't inhale. Two nights in the Midlands and one in London complete our itinerary.

The challenge of this journey is that Highclere Castle and Althorp House aren't posting their opening times for 2018 until October, and we can't ask for tickets before then. At that time we can confirm the dates and the finalized itinerary and costs. We are aiming for May or September 2018. The journey will be mindful, fun, and informative, with some time for you to explore your interests – especially in Oxford.
