“A Moment with the Minister”

I want to use this month's newsletter column to let you know what will be happening at VUU in January. While I am away for the month, you will hear from local religious leaders who have made an impact for justice here in the valley. It promises to be a month of worship services you won't want to miss.

Maybe you're wondering what I'll be doing while I'm away in January. First, a little background. You may remember that in 2016, I took a three-month sabbatical. Like the vast majority of UU ministers, I earn a month of sabbatical for every year I work. This sabbatical time is intended to be used for renewal and skill-building.

It used to be standard that ministers saved up that time and used it in six-month intervals. That practice has changed over the years, with shorter sabbaticals becoming more common. In part, it was recognized that having the minister gone for six months could be a real hardship on the congregation, and that not all ministers want or need that much time away.

Here at VUU, after I returned from my three-month sabbatical in late 2016, the board and I processed how that time was for both me and the congregation. We decided that we would like to experiment with even shorter and more frequent sabbaticals. To that end, in January 2018 I am going to use the month I earned in 2017. I will be taking a nonprofit leadership course, visiting family in Indiana, and doing lots of reading and planning for the 2018-19 congregational year.

To maintain the quality of worship services, I have invited local colleagues to be guest speakers during the month of January. You will hear from Rabbi John Linder, a religious leader with a history of community organizing. You will also hear from evangelical Christian minister (and frequent social justice ally) Rev. Chris Gonzalez, Rev. Abigail Conley of Chalice Christian Church in Gilbert, and Rev. Joan Crawford, who will present some African-American history and theology in an inviting new way.

I am grateful for the long tradition of sabbatical time for ministers in the liberal religious tradition. These seasons of rest and renewal help me refresh and re-center. I hope this time will also be useful to you. I know my colleagues will be bringing messages that will challenge and inspire. And I look forward to being with you again in February. Until then, holiday blessings to you and yours.

With love,
Rev. Andy

BOARD HIGHLIGHTS

Dear friends of VUU,

We had an eventful November at VUU. We had a Congregational Conversation in which we discussed board goals for the year, our overall good financial condition, our initial reactions to changes in the UUA dues process coming in 2020, initial VUU Member Survey results, and stewardship campaign planning. During Vision Sunday, the Stewardship Committee held an amazing catered event in which there were 125 households in attendance. The results of this campaign show an increase of 7% (almost $30k!). Thank you to all of you that contributed to this effort as we “take the next step” in achieving our vision.

On the capital campaign front, our first board goal, a subcommittee has been scheduling meetings with a half-dozen commercial architects to determine the feasibility of adding buildings to our campus. We had our first meeting last week and are excited to see what is possible. As mentioned during the congregational conversation, we plan to present our recommendation at the mid-year meeting on February 4th to move forward with the overall planning process.

During our board meeting this week, we completed our 3rd board goal of creating a board document repository. We finally have a single place to manage board documentation, schedules, and resources. Now we can put all our efforts toward capital campaign and end statement measures.

Speaking of measures, Rev. Dr. Andy is leading the board through a book study on just that. It’s not just numbers and figures, but it is also the stories within the congregation and the wider community that help us measure our progress. This will be good to keep in mind as we begin to look at putting specific measures in place over the rest of this year.

We also appointed Musette Steger as our new secretary. Thank you, Musette, for accepting! She will be taking over the new role after she completes the final report on the VUU Member Survey by the end of the year. The survey report will be made available to the congregation as well.

Finally, as mentioned at the congregational conversation, the UUA is changing the way dues are calculated for congregations. As proposed, this will be a significant increase in how much we would contribute to the UUA on a yearly basis. Although we have until 2019 for this to take effect, the finance team and board have already started a dialogue with the UUA to review concerns and suggestions. We are also taking actions to reach out to other AZ congregations and develop an appropriate response for VUU to ensure financial stability. Expect more to come on this in future congregational meetings.

Warm regards,
Paul Schneider
 President
 VUU Board of Trustees

ONGOING ADULT FAITH FORMATION OFFERINGS

Great Books discussion group

The VUU Great Books Reading and Discussion Group will take a reading break in December in order to gather for our Christmas potluck. All are invited to Kevin's home for dinner, conversation, and Christmas cheer. We will be talking about what series of readings we would like to tackle next. The potluck will be Sunday, December 17, at 5p.m.

Please contact Kevin Erdmann at kebko@yahoo.com if you have any questions or need directions.

What is the best diet for me?

A research and discussion group facilitated by Jerry Waters. Group meets 7 p.m. – 9 p.m., on the 1st Mondays of each month, in the board room in the Valley UU office building.

On December 4th we will begin by sharing one of our favorite recipes. Next we will discuss The China Study and its potential effects. In the 70's and 80's work was done in 65 counties in China. This massive project involved Cornell, the University of Oxford and the Chinese Academy of Preventative Medicine. The object was to correlate nutrition and health. How can our diet affect our health? How can we avoid disease by eating more properly? Diet has been shown to greatly reduce our chances of catching many of the prevalent diseases of the West. It has the ability to reverse many such conditions. Meet with us and look at the evidence.

The Dalai Lama and Friends Workshop

An opportunity to learn from the Dalai Lama and other Tibetan and modern Buddhist teachers is offered each Sunday from 9-10 a.m. in the RE complex, room 5. There is a reading or recorded audio or video teaching, then group discussion. Everyone is welcome! Various topics are discussed, such as 'how to be more compassionate' or 'dealing with anger' or 'how to meditate'.

If you come early there is also meditation from 8:30 a.m. - 9 a.m. We are done at 10 a.m. - plenty of time to get to the VUU service! ...questions? Just email DavidBlackDLF@gmail.com

Child care is available at 8:30 a.m. in the room next door, #6

The N.S.G. (Not So Great) Book Club

We will meet on December 14 at 7:00 p.m. at the Monahan home (near 101 & Ray Rd) for our holiday party. We will be selecting books for next year. Anyone is welcome who enjoys discussing books and who would like to make suggestions for books to read and discuss in 2018. This group does not require that you attend every month – come when the book is of interest to you and you would like to discuss it with others.

For the meeting address or questions, please contact Johnnie at 480-839-0544, Amy at 480-917-1922, or email: agmonahan@gmail.com.

Spirit of Life Reading Circle

Spirit of Life Reading Circle meets once a month to discuss theological issues of interest to Unitarian Universalists. We send out links to the articles for the month, which everyone reads before the meeting and they form the basis for our discussion, after we have a short check-in to see how everyone is doing. Despite the old saw that you should never publicly discuss religion or politics, this is a place that exists for us to discuss religious issues that illuminate our principles and our lives.

No December meeting. Our schedule for 2018: January 25, February 22, March 22, April 26, and May 24.

Email maryloganrothschild@gmail.com to get on our mailing list. Our group is open and welcoming, and we'd love to see you join us!

Mary Rothschild, Rebecca Riggs and Anne Schneider.

COLUMBUS AND OTHER CANNIBALS

"Why is the dominant culture so excruciatingly, relentlessly, insanelly, genocidally, ecocidally, suicidally destructive?" (Jack D. Forbes) Come explore with us the nativist concept of Wétiko, a contagious disease of the soul that Forbes claims has infected most of the world. It's evidenced by aggression and violence, hate and greed, and consumes everything, including people's lives.

What can we do to inoculate or cure ourselves? What can we do for the rest of the world? Let's talk about it. We'll meet on the 1st Monday of every month, November through May (except January) at 7:00 p.m. in the VUU conference room. It's a small room so attendance will be limited.

To sign up contact Jayne Burgess at Jayne@JayneBurgess.com, Jerry Gnoza at Jerry.Gnoza@gmail.com, or Jessica Gnoza at Jessica.McCulla@gmail.com.

MUSIC & MORE

Everyone is invited to the annual CHRISTMAS CAROLING PARTY on Wed. December 13, meeting at 6:30 p.m. in the sanctuary. This is sponsored by the Chalice Singers, VUU's Children's Choir, and both kids (all ages) and adults are invited to join us. We will carol around the neighborhood, then meet back in the sanctuary kitchen for holiday treats.

NO Holiday Orchestra this year! Because Christmas Eve is on a Sunday this year, we are doing our annual RE Children's Pageant that morning at the 10:30 a.m. service, which is the event the Holiday Orchestra normally plays for. And unfortunately, this date won't work with our wonderful volunteer director's schedule and other dates won't work with our worship schedule. However, there may be an opportunity to play in an Interfaith Orchestra/Band later in the spring, so stay posted for more info about that possibility!

CHOIR MUSIC: On Sunday December 17 in the worship service, the Adult Choir will be singing John Rutter's Candlelight Carol with a small chamber orchestra. John Rutter, the renowned British composer and director of the Cambridge Singers, says he wrote this piece in 1984 as a result of a conversation at a choral convention in Pittsburgh. The director of a Catholic church said to him "we're only a small choir, nothing special, but we'd love you to write us a carol featuring the Virgin Mary." He was moved by this request and when working on the piece an image of Geertgen's painting "Nativity at Night" (c. 1490) came to his mind. This painting hangs in the National Gallery in London and shows a dark stable with Mary gazing down at the crib where Jesus is radiating a miraculous light, illuminating her face and a group of kneeling angels. Check it out at: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Nativity\_at\_Night

In the text of his carol the supernatural light became candlelight, but as Mr. Rutter says, "carols have never been noted for literal accuracy!"

At the 7 p.m. Christmas Eve Service the choir will be singing a piece that pairs The Little Drummer Boy with another Christmas song titled Peace on Earth. They will also be singing a lovely Christmas Lullaby, which includes the words: "Somewhere a rose is blooming, somewhere a candle is lighting, somewhere a sleeping, sleeping on earth." The Bell Choir will also be playing an arrangement of the German Carol, Still, Still, Still.

Mark your calendars now, as the musical duo Emma's Revolution is coming on Saturday February 10th! They will be giving a workshop on writing justice music and harmonizing in the early afternoon, with a concert in our sanctuary that evening, at 7:30 p.m.. Stay tuned for further details.

And remember, all of our CHOIRS always accept new members!

Chalice Singers (Grade K-6) rehearse Wednesdays 6:15 -7 p.m. (Sanctuary Kitchen, but they are off on Dec. 6 & then Dec. 27-Jan. 17, resuming rehearsals on Jan. 24)

Chalice Ringers (Bell Choir) rehearse Wednesdays 6 to 7:15 p.m. (Sanctuary-off on Dec. 27)

Adult Choir rehearses Wednesdays 7:30 to 9 p.m. (Sanctuary -off on Dec. 27)

-Rev. Kellie Walker Hart (music@vuu.org)

The next Journey to Membership Session will be:
Sunday, February 11, noon to 3:30 p.m. in the Sanctuary

VUU COMMUNITY

2018 FUUNd Together

FUUNd Together is more than just a fundraiser, it is also a wonderful opportunity to spend time with each other and strengthen our VUU community. But don't just take my word for it! Here is what VUU member and FUUNd lover Pat Flahart has to say.

I LOVE the FUUNd Together activities – the ones that I have sponsored – Superstition Mountains Hike and drive to my “special secret place” with lunch; Women’s High Tea; baked items, and ones I have purchased. Friendships and even romances have developed from FUUNd Together activities. What a marvelous way to share one’s talents, interests, and enjoyments with VUU Participants.

Won't you please consider joining the FUUNd next year by hosting a meal, hike, party or special event, teaching a skill to others, sharing your artistic, baking or musical talents, or maybe offering your vacation home for a weekend? Stop by the FUUNd table after the service and we'll be happy to provide more ideas.

We can't wait to have FUUNd with you!!

VUU Lay Pastoral Care Educational Offering

Beginning in January 2018, the VUU Lay Pastoral Care Associates will be sponsoring an adult education program titled Facing Death with Life. This program facilitates a process of personal reflection, learning and spiritual growth focused on the topic of death and dying. It brings death and dying and grief into the light of our daily lives and out of the dark area of our lives to which we often relegate it. This program is not a grief support group, nor is it an intellectual study of death. It includes sociological information and reflection, theological learning, personal and shared narrative, creative expression, journaling and practical learning and preparation. It helps us to move from viewing death as an abstract concept to developing a personal recognition of its meaning in our lives. This program invites participants to experience death and dying as a healthy part of life, including preparation, grieving and living on.

We will be offering some resources on popular topics which were requested in our Lay Pastoral Care survey last year like advance directives and completing or updating our life crisis forms.

This educational offering will be provided in 3 sessions - January 21st, 2018 - February 4th – February 18th. Reverend Andy will co-lead the last two sessions. Each session will be about 2 hours each, being held from 12noon – 2 p.m. It is meant to be offered as a series so if you register, please plan to attend all 3 classes. You won't want to miss out on any of these classes! The time will be after church and the first class will meet in the Sanctuary and second & third classes will meet in Room 5.

A table will be set up outside after the December 17th service to share information concerning this program.

Please sign up by emailing office@vuu.org or call the church office 480-899-4249 and let Sue Ringler know that you plan to attend. You can also sign up at the January 14th service.

Thank you for opening your hearts to others not as lucky as we are!

SAVE THE FAMILY: ADOPT A FAMILY FOR THE HOLIDAYS

This year, we have the opportunity to help a refugee family from Afghanistan. Our family is made up of a mother, father and 3 young children.

Both programs began November 26th, with tables outside the sanctuary on Sunday mornings. With many people from our congregation participating, we should be able to ensure a very happy holiday season for both families!

If you do choose to participate, all gifts must be new, wrapped, and returned to VUU by December 17th. ## Library Notes

The Not So Great Books Club just read, Small Great Things by Jodi Picoult. We thought it would be a great addition to our library. Ruth, a dedicated African American nurse, is accused of causing the death of a newborn baby, the child of white supremacist parents. Each chapter is narrated by a different character. Through Ruth's thoughts we get a glimpse of what it would be like to be a black woman in our white society. Through Turk's thoughts we hear the very disturbing bigoted ideas and actions of a racist. Kennedy, the white woman lawyer, struggles to win her first murder trial without mentioning race while the entire case hinges on it.

The book is in the Fiction section located next to the library's exit door.

THE LONGEST NIGHT SERVICE

The holiday season is often hectic, and may be an especially difficult time for many people. Painful memories from the past can come to the forefront when we least expect it. If you, or someone you love, is struggling with grief, the loss of a loved one, divorce, illness, depression, job loss, or other issues; or are just overwhelmed by the chaos of the season, please plan to attend this quiet, meaningful service.

This "Longest Night" gathering is a calming service recognizing that we are all connected; no one is alone. It provides a safe space where those mixed emotions can be acknowledged; and peace, and comfort brought into the lives of those in need. It offers hope for the holidays.

Please join us at 7:00 p.m. on Thursday December 21st in the Sanctuary of Valley Unitarian Universalist Congregation. All are welcome. There are flyers in the Sanctuary for this service. We encourage people to take one (or more) and pass them on to any family, friends, colleagues, etc., for whom the service may be meaningful.

The Gilded Age Meets Downton Abbey.

Cora, of Downton Abbey fame, is the inspiration for this journey. She was based on the American heiresses who arrived in England during the late 1800s and married for love or to rescue a great estate in distress. We will focus on some of these heiresses, while we explore their homes and visit Downton Abbey film sites. Highclere Castle was the home of heiress Lady Almina Carnarvon, and was also used as the fictional home of Cora. American Consuelo Vanderbilt married the 9th Duke of Marlborough and saved Blenheim Palace with her fortune. Another heiress, Jennie Jerome, married the 8th Duke of Marlborough's brother, and gave birth to Winston Churchill there. The great-grandmother of Diana the Princess of Wales, was an American Heiress and the future kings of England are her descendants.

We'll stay for 5 nights in my favourite English city, Oxford - the unique university town of amazing bookstores, unusual architecture, historic pubs, and eclectic free museums. We see where JRR Tolkien met with the Inklings, Lewis Carroll dreamed up Alice in Wonderland, CS Lewis had a magical wardrobe, Inspector Morse solved many crimes, and Bill Clinton didn't inhale. Two nights in the Midlands and one in London complete our itinerary.

The challenge of this journey is that Highclere Castle and Althorp House aren't posting their opening times for 2018 until October, and we can't ask for tickets before then. At that time we can confirm the dates and the finalized itinerary and costs. We are aiming for May or September 2018. The journey will be mindful, fun, and informative, with some time for you to explore your interests – especially in Oxford.
