

The Leadership Development Committee is writing a job description for Leadership Development Committee members. We plan to use this document (1) to recruit candidates for the LDC and (2) to educate the congregation about what to consider when voting for candidates for election to the LDC.

We have limited you to three responses for each of the below questions because we want the description to be concise. Please note the description will be written with the idea that an individual candidate may not possess all of the “ideal” qualities.

Please provide your answer to the following questions:
